Project Title:	Passport to Prosperity 2004-2005 Visit the Passport to Prosperity Website today!
Description:	This program focuses on recruiting local businesses and industry to provide opportunities such as job shadowing, cooperative education placements, apprenticeships and other work experiences for students. Other ways for businesses to participate include guest-speaking at schools, mentoring or offering workplace tours.
Project Outcome:	Increase the awareness of hands-on work related experiences, which in turn increases the involvement of employers and increases student interest in the workforce. Over 200 employers have committed to a variety of school-work activities.
Key Partners:	North Superior Training Board; Ministry of Education; Lakehead District School Board; Thunder Bay Catholic District School Board; CSDC Aurores Boréales; Superior-Greenstone District School Board; Northwestern Ontario Associated Chambers of Commerce; and YES Employment Services (Thunder Bay)
